

FOREWORD BY MICHAEL MROSS

(German stock market specialist who worked as a presenter for CNBC among others)

Investigative journalism is experiencing a period of growth which I am able to easily observe in the increasing numbers of people reading my own website MMNews.

I appreciate Heiko's work and regularly publish his articles on my website.

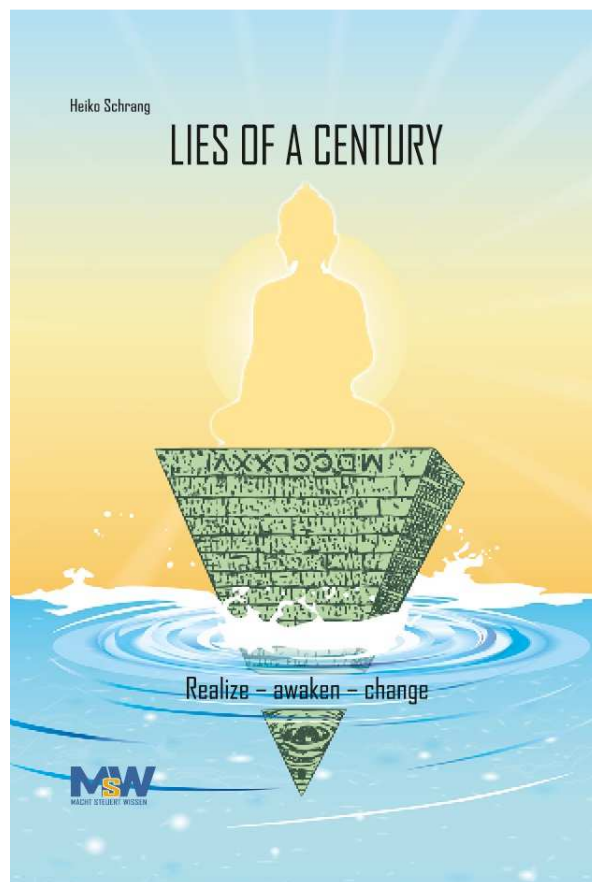

Heiko has a concise and easy to grasp writing style of presenting even complex economic and political relationships, which has gained him a broad reader base, ranging through all facets of society.

At first I was skeptical, as I had so far never encountered a book that was able to connect complex political topics with spiritual ones. And yet this is precisely what makes this book so enticing.

It is left to the reader whether he or she reads the entire book from cover to cover or chapter by chapter. However, those who decide to read the entire book, follows the idea of the author that the solution to the problems in our society rests within ourselves also and that it is down to the responsibility of the individual in order to change the whole.

In this way you will increase your knowledge in two areas by reading this book.

Enjoy the read! Michael Mross
